

GRANADA

Discover Granada is an adventure, perhaps by Arabic heritage of mystery still surrounds it, perhaps by the narrowness of the streets or the treasures that hidden. Contemplate it has always been considered a privilege as evidenced by the popular saying: "Give him alms women, there is nothing in life as the penalty of blind in Granada.

Granada is the capital of the province. The city sits on the confluence of the rivers Darro and Genil, the foot of Sierra Nevada and opening up the fertile valley. At the foot of the Alhambra, the most emblematic monument visit each year over two million people, is a city full of animation and monuments.

City 'Moors and Christians', heritage, although clearly differentiated, brings the legacy of both cultures. Enriched for centuries by Arabs, Christian gave to the city unique monuments.

The river Darro is emblematic artery from Plaza Nueva (the Royal Chancery and Mudejar Church of San Gil and Santa Ana) to the Promenade

Sorry, punctuated by the Bañuelo (Arab bath Walnut XI century), the plateresca Castril house, home of Archaeological Museum, and a trail of buildings and monuments.

Facing the Alhambra stands the Albaicin, packed winding alleys and stronghold of the Islamic city. Was the central focus of the city and Nazari Zirid period as evidenced by the many testimonies which have been conserved. Chapiz slope up from the Darro inward, in this area include the Church

San Juan de los Reyes, with a minaret tower XIII century mosque, in the highest, church and the Mirador de San Nicolas with a splendid views of the Alhambra, and the Church of the Savior, built on the old mosque.

Al-Andalus is breathed to go in the Albaicin

Long Square and the Arch of the weights, door

Alhacaba slope wall, topped by the door

Monaita. Another of the monuments with the faced in this neighborhood is the Convent of Santa Isabel la Real that intertwined with the Palace of Dar al-Horrocks, the House of Queen "where the mother resided Boabdil, the last king Nazari Granada. On the streets Boilers New and Old woman descends to Elvira Street, which through your door connecting the Albaicín the medina.